THE LORGNETTIE: or the Saudice of the Town—Complete in two elegant volumes. Frice $1.25 cents each. With twelve highly finished Illustrations from designs by Darley.

These unique Essays have, by many critics, been already assigned a piace with those of Addison, Steele, and Johnson. It will appear from the Reliewing extracts, that the long morted question as to the authorship of these brilliant peners is at last avowed:

We understand that Stringer & Townsend have now in press the fourth edition of the Lorgeste Papers, and that in this edition Dos and Mirrosat, our old fraced 'Ik Marrel, avows the authorship of this popular publication. We also have that Attachel's Reverse of Bachelor, has already gone through seven editions of one thousand is now traced to its genuine source. He admirable wit and happy descriptions will always make it a favorite with the lovers of stering literature. The acknowledgment of its authorable will awaken a fresh curiosity in its permaal among the large class who have found such enchantment in the 'Raveries of a Bachelor.' DROPOSALS BY LITTLE & BROWN

English Reports in Law and Equity.

PROPOSALS BY LITTLE & BROWN, acription a new series of LAW AND EQUITY REPORTS.

The want of some system by which the decisions and judicial opinions of the several Courts of Law and Equity in England can be more promptly and cheaply furnished to the legal profession in this country, has long been seriously felt and acknowledged. To meet a similar want in Eagland, the "Low Journal Reports," and "The Jurist," which, together, report decisions in all the Courts in Law and Equity, within a few weeks after their delivery, were commenced a number of years since, and have met with the universal approbation of the legal profession.

The subscribers propose to republish these reports in full, as fast as they appear in England and can be received here. They will contain reports of cases decided in the House of Lords, the Privy Council, the several Courts of Equity, the Court of Queen's Bench, the Court of Common Pleas, the Court of Exchequer and Exchequer Chamber, the Ecclesiastical and Asmiriary Gourts, the Court of Bankruptcy, including all the Election Cases, the Crown Cases Reserved, and the Railway and Canal Cases.

These reports will be published in monthly numbers or parts, commencing with the decisions of Michaeimas (November) Term, 1850, and will be carefully edited by a member of the Bar, with nones and references to analogous American decisions.

Each number will consist of over THREE HUNDARD pages closely printed octavo, on the best paper, and in a clear, fair type, and will contain a table of cases, and a full table of contents, thus forming a complete volume by thelf, as well as a part of an entire series. Every alternate or second number will be paged consecutively from the number immediately preceding, and will contain a table of cases, and of contents to both, and thus form, every two months, a complete volume, ready for binding, of over strandered pages.

It is designed to make this a PERMANENT FUSLICATION, and think estabilish a new series of ENCLISH Law and Equity a could otherwise be obtained, and long before the publication of the contemporaneous decisions of most of our own tribunals.

The profession may be assured that this series will be the most complete of any reports now published. A careful examination of the Jurist and Law Journal, for a series of years, discloses the fact that many important cases are here reported which are not found in the contemporaneous reports of Meeson & Weisby, Manning, Granger & Scott, Adolphus and Ellis, and other reporter; and the Law Journal alone, during the first seven years of its existence, published over 1,000 cases not then elsewhere reported.—This publication will include all, the future decisions of the Law and Equity Courts hereafter contained in the several series of English Reports.

As to the character of the "Law Journal" and "The Jurist" but little need be said. They were established to furnish the profession with the actual decision of canses, and the reasoning of the Court thereupon, with a clear, concise, and sufficient abstract of the facts, without the profession and sufficient abstract of the facts, without the profession and sufficient abstract of the facts, without the profession and sufficient abstract of the facts, without the profession for causes and the reasoning of the Court thereupon, with a clear, concise, and by their most eminent elementary writers. They are regularly digested and inserted in the English Reportation of distinguished English Judges. They are tred with confidence and as authority, in the ludical opinions of Judge Story and others, and have received the express sandino distinguished English Judges. They are clead with confidence has the low price of this series consisted with the proapprices and report to the profession, cannot fall to recommend it as a useful and desirable publication.

The price of this publication, forming six volumes octave, will be $16 a year, payable in advance, or the six volumes handsomely and uniformly bound in law sheep, $12.

Library Committee of Congress. The work will be completted in seven volumes octavo; the contents of which will te as follows:

1769 to 1789.1

Volume II. embraces the residue of the writings of this period; a series very essential to a correct knowledge of our early political history.

Volume III constant he papers which relate to the organization and conduct of the fiscal department of our Government, its revenues and public credit.

Volume IV. will include the period from 1789 to 1795, embodying the papers designated as "Cabinet Papers," comprehencing the most important part of Washington's Administration.

embodying the papers designated as "Cabinet Papers," comprehencing the most important part of Washington's Administration.

Volume V will be devoted to other official writings, not coming within the previous description.

The two remaining volumes will give the correspondence subsequent to the year 1789, and an accurate series of political papers of great and lasting value.

An edition of the works of this distinguished statesman has long been an object of anxious desire. To the statesman, the diplematist, the politician, the student of bistory, and the general reader, they will prove invaluable, and to public and private librariesan indispensable addition. They are now presented by us to the public, chiefly srinted from MSS purchased by Congress, under the direction of the Joint Library Committee. They have not been stereotyped, and only five hundred copies have been printed for sale; an early application will therefore be necessary to secure copies. The Publishers will receive orders from subscribers at $2.25 per volume. The work is handsomely printed and bound in cioth. When completed the price will be risised to $2.36, or $17.50 the set.

The first volume is now ready, the second and third are siready printed, and the remainder will speedily follow. Orders should be sent directly to the Fublishers.
